

Advances in Citriculture

ISBN: 9788186095096
e-ISBN: N/A
Author: Shyam Singh, V.J. Shivankar, A.K. Srivastava, I.P. Singh
Pages: 686
Year: 2004
Binding: Hardbound

₹ 3495

Available at amazon

[CLICK TO DOWNLOAD
BROCHURE](#)

About Book

Contents

Advances in Citriculture brings you a wealth of information catalogued chronologically the advances made in global citriculture on 29 subjects areas of major importance to Citrus Growers, Scientists, Students, Planners and Administrators. A team of nation and internationally renowned citrus experts presenting an incisive analysis of different core issues right from the history of citrus cultivation to post-harvest management including the use of latest techniques like bioinformatics and other recent advanced techniques have been critically portrayed. The publication features an exhaustive citation of work emerged from across the six citrus growing continents of the world. The book promises to be a true milestone of the future of Citriculture.